Part 4 of your final project represents the peer-review component of your projects. This part of your project is worth 100 points total. You may earn up to 80 points by completing any combination of the following

- Ask a thoughtful (and non-repetitive) question on another student's presentation (20 points each)
- Respond to a question about your project (20 points each)
- Provide a thoughtful (and non-repetitive) comment or observation on another student's presentation (10 points each, maximum of 4)
- Provide a specific, topic-related compliment to another student's presentation (5 points each, maximum of 4)

The remaining 20 points of this assignment will be assigned based on how well you adhere to the following instructions:

- Edit your Slack comment sharing your presentation to include the title of your project and the option number for your project;
- Ask at least one thoughtful (non-repetitive) questions on at least one project from someone who did the same option as you;
- Comment on at least one project from someone who did a different option than you did;
- Prioritize commenting on anyone who has not yet received at least two comments;
- Be respectful and courteous and focus your comments on the content of the work;
- Make sure your feedback provides indication that you have both watched the recorded presentation and skimmed through the written report for any projects you provide with feedback;
- Submit your comments to other student's projects by 11:59 pm EST on Friday the 14th;
- Submit your responses to other students' questions/comments by 11:59 pm EST on Sunday the 15th.
