Notes and Comments for Person 1:

Elizabeth worked extremely hard on so much of the project, so I gave her the highest score on cooperation with others to give her the true credit she deserves. She was involved with all aspects of the project even in sections that were part of other members roles. In addition, she took on the synthesizing our final code from multiple files which was a lot of work. Very flexible and positive during all of our meetings.

Notes and Comments for Person 2:

Satchel did a great job, she was a helpful support on many aspects of the project and took a great and helpful lead on the poster creation. She was always present at all meetings and helped with editing and all of our last checks. Very flexible and positive during all of our meetings.

Notes and Comments for Person 3:

Justin also did a wonderful job as he was in charge of much of our initial data cleaning when we had more than 2000 observations. He also took on making sure that our figures were presentable with all of their labels. Very flexible and positive during all of our meetings.
