Notes and Comments for Person 1(Oliver Clackson):

Oliver was a great contributor to our group. Specifically, he did an outstanding job in creating a poster. He would constantly communicate with the rest of the group as he was writing up the poster and asked for a consensus on what was included in the poster, and how the poster was formatted. He was constantly checking over the report and making necessary adjustments. He was always willing to help if other groupmates had any issues. Oliver always finished his portion of the work in a timely manner, and he constantly made suggestions on what should be done in the analysis.

Notes and Comments for Person 2(Min Nunta-aree):

Min was also a great contributor to the group, not only through his contribution to the analysis but also through his cooperation and communication. When other group members had any issues or did not understand analysis, he was willing to explain concepts thoroughly so that everyone was on the same page. He also did a great job of formatting the report, making the report look clean and easy to follow. He constantly communicated with other group members as he was writing a portion of the report, and made a significant contribution in writing up sections 2 and 3 of the report.

Notes and Comments for both Min and Oliver:

I just wanted to note that I enjoyed being a groupmate of Oliver and Min. It was great to be able to discuss statistics with passionate peers. I would like to thank them for their effort and willingness to communicate throughout the project.
